Jazz Artists on the Greens™ fever heats up as countdown begins

GLENCOE, March 18 2010 – The eighth annual Jazz Artists on the Greens™ is set for a exciting start on Saturday March, 20, 2010. As the countdown continues to the big day, Production One Ltd announces that the Holistic School Youth Orchestra will perform on the main stage from 4:30 pm as part of the pre-show activities. This talented group of young musicians under the tutelage of Dr. Patricia Dardaine-Ragguet, fresh from the Music Festival stage will perform a couple of jazz standards. Woodbrook Playboyz will also perform on the Greens prior to the main stage acts:

- Master panner, Jason Baptiste and AFROLYPSO
- Cuban jazz violinist William Roblejo and his trio
- New York based ocalist R'kardo St'von backed by the JAOTG All Stars featuring internationally acclaimed jazz trumpet player BROWMAN
- Powerhouse vocalist Brenda Butler and
- Toronto-based Caribbean Jazz band Kalabash

The action does not stop after the show as the musicians go to Spalkers Resspar on the Cascadia Hotel Compound in St. Anns for the After Jazz Jam from about 11:00 pm along with young jazz outfit Blue Culture led by Karl Doyle. All musicians are invited to walk with their instruments, as improvisation and magic can and will happen.

On Friday afternoon at 4:00 pm., after a rounds of media interviews, members of Kalabash will be facilitating a Jazz Masterclass & Workshop hosted by UTT and Dave Marcellin of the jazz programme there. This event will take place at APA Auditorium at the National Academy of Performing Arts, North in Port of Spain. Interested musicians, please call Dave Marcellin for details at 748 3044 or go to <http://www.productiononeltd.com/uttworkshop.pdf>
